No-maintenance system documentation. True story.

Training has undergone a revolution over the past decade, and training content and system documentation has been no exception. ClickLearn, which provides a powerful tool that facilitates content creation and practically automatic updates, unveiled their newest support and training solution last month. While NVS does not partner with any add-on solutions, we've seen such great success with our clients we collaborated with ClickLearn on this case study. If you want to discuss how to save countless hours and streamline quality with your BC / NAV documentation and training resources, let us know.

Do your user permissions feel like the wild west?

If your BC / NAV user permissions have gotten out of hand, Sheriff Cynthia Priebe is here to restore law and order. She's riding into town with E Foqus alongside to share her key tips and insights next Thursday, November 11th, at 1:00 EST (that's high noon CST). It's a free event so register soon and don't be yellow-bellied!
