#GetYourNewView

Hello Mark,

Thanksgiving is Thursday for those of us in the U.S., and I'm finding the need to truly pause and reflect. In this tumultuous, alarming, historical year, Thanksgiving takes on a meaning for me unlike any before it. We've all been affected in some way by the events of this year, some more deeply than they could ever imagine. But in the midst of these trials we've seen creative ideas and solutions, positive change, and new opportunities.

I'm so deeply thankful for our clients, this year more than ever, as they've continued to look forward and trust us to help them adapt their system and processes to meet these challenging times. I'm thankful for our Business Central / NAV community, who have continued to support each other at a time when support is most needed but more difficult to afford. I'm certainly thankful for our New View team, who have doubled down with their passion and commitment to making a difference for our clients and each other. And as I'm sure you are, I'm thankful for my family and friends, for sharing moments of support, anxiety, and hope.

Each year it seems a bit of a platitude to pause and give thanks at Thanksgiving. This year, I hope you are able to truly pause and reflect on some of the good things that transcended this year's struggles.

From our team to yours,

Kerry Peters
