The new phone books are here!

Not really (do they even make those anymore?) – but with Steve Martin’s enthusiasm we do welcome the Release Notes for Business Central 2021 Wave 1! Inside is a robust list of function and feature enhancements for Business Central to be included in the April 2021 release or shortly thereafter. As in the fall, the team at New View will unpack this release and highlight our favorites as well as key opportunities for business process improvement. We’ll share via our blog and YouTube channel over the next month and change, so subscribe now to not miss any updates.
