

Production Orders

At the very heart of your shop floor operations is the proper configuration, processing, and flow of your production orders in your Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central / NAV system. We'll explain and uncover the finer points for setup, scheduling, and processing of your orders, the different types of production orders available, and walk through the options for recording consumption of materials and labor for accurate costing and reporting.

Class topics

- Order Processing
- BOM/Routing Versions
- Forward Flushing
- Backward Flushing

Who Should Attend?

Anyone on the manufacturing team interested in the efficiency and proper tracking / reporting of your shop floor operations.

Learning Objectives:

At the end of this class, participants will be able to:

- Describe the setup and flow of production orders
- Explain the optimal approach for using BOMs and routings
- Set up multi-level BOMs and versions of BOMs
- Explain the processes of forward and backward flushing

Field of Study: Computer Software & Applications

Program Level: Intermediate

Prerequisites: Manufacturing Setup 1 & 2

Advanced Preparation: Each student will receive via email connection instructions to their individual virtual classroom link and hands-on practice environment shortly before class. Connections to both resources should be tested before class. We recommend using a second monitor while attending class.

Delivery Method: Group Internet-based

CPE Credits: By participating in this class, you are eligible to earn up to 4 CPE credits which will be distributed following class completion. In order to be awarded the full credit hours, you must notify your instructor of your intention to request credit before the start of the first class. To receive CPE credit, you must be present and actively engaged, which will be verified using polling questions and other means. You will not receive CPE credit for any portion of the class that you do not appear fully engaged.

Version: This class is taught in Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central.

Learning environment: As experienced trainers of adult learners, we understand how to make training “stick”. We use proven practices to make sure you retain what you learn and are fully equipped to immediately apply what you discovered in class. Each day, you will spend more than 50% of your time doing hands-on exercises in our simulated learning environment.
