

How do customers get the most from their BC/NAV partner relationship?

For our first quarterly NVS Huddle this year we sat down with the partners in our Strategic Partner Program to discuss the role of the partner and best practices for customers to realize the true value of their partner relationship. A huge thank you to the following panelists who joined us for a very real and thought-provoking conversation:

Ben Baxter, Accent Software

David Gersten, Dynamic Consulting

Erik Hougaard, E Foqus Canada

Jim High, Stoneridge Software

Mary Malone, Innovia Consulting

HOW TO WORK WITH YOUR PARTNER

Winner winner chicken dinner!

Who doesn't like some free consulting help? To encourage some engagement during our 3 sessions at DynamicsCon 2021 we held a drawing for a 1-hour coaching session with the New View experts. Congratulations to our 3 lucky winners!

Brittany Folds, MedTrust

Kelsey Colvin, Barkley Company of Arizona

Stacy Laurent, Classic Accessories, LLC

I COULD USE SOME COACHING

First time in over a year...

There are still a few seats left for the Advanced Controller's Boot Camp, May 17-21, 1:00 – 5:00 EDT but you don't want to let this opportunity go by! We'll cover:

Advanced Accounts Payable Inventory Costing
Inventory Reconciliation
Sales Tax
Using Fixed Assets

This class was written for controllers by a controller. Go beyond efficiencies to truly understand the system and be proactive with your financial and operational management, while earning 20 CPE credits at the same time.
